Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 10, 2019, Orgenesis Inc. (referred to herein as “us,” “our,” or the “Company”) and Orgenesis Maryland Inc. (the “Borrower”) entered into a convertible loan agreement (the “Convertible Loan Agreement”) with Yosef Ram (the “Lender,” and together with the Company and the Borrower, the “Parties”), pursuant to which the Lender loaned the Borrower $500,000 (the “Loan Amount”) to fund the completion of development activities and additional activities as may be required from time to time. Interest is calculated at 6% per annum (based on a 365-day year) and is payable, along with the principal, on or before April 10, 2021 (the “Maturity Date”). The Maturity Date may be extended by the Lender in the Lender’s sole and absolute discretion and any such extension(s) shall be in writing signed by the Parties. The Loan Amount may be prepaid by the Borrower in whole or in part at any time with the prior written approval of the Lender (such approval to be in the Lender’s sole and absolute discretion).

At any time prior to or on the Maturity Date, the Lender may provide us and the Borrower with written notice to convert all or part of the loan into: (x) shares of common stock (or the equivalent thereof) of the Borrower then outstanding, at a conversion price equal to the Borrower’s valuation of $50 million (including shares underlying all outstanding options, warrants, and other convertible securities, but excluding the shares of equity securities of the Borrower issuable upon the conversion of any and all accrued but unpaid interest thereon); or (y) units of shares of our common stock at a conversion rate of $7.00 per share and a warrant to purchase an equal number of additional shares of our common stock at a price of $7.00 per share.

In the event the closing price of our common stock on the Nasdaq Capital Market (or other national stock exchange or market on which our common stock is then listed or quoted) equals or exceeds $15.00 per share (which amount may be adjusted for certain capital events, such as stock splits) for ten (10) consecutive trading days, then the Lender must convert any and all accrued but unpaid interest into shares of the Borrower or shares of our common stock in his discretion at the applicable conversion price set forth in the previous paragraph.

All warrants issued to the holder of the note in connection with the conversion into units of any and all accrued but unpaid interest, are subject to a mandatory conversion wherein the Company shall have the right to require the Lender to exercise all or any portion of the warrant that is still unexercised for a cash exercise when our common stock on the Nasdaq Capital Market equals or exceeds $15.00 per share for ten (10) consecutive trading days.

The convertible loan and the shares of common stock and warrants issuable upon conversion of the convertible loan, and the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of such Warrants (the “Underlying Securities”), have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and were issued and sold to a non-U.S. person in reliance upon the exemption from registration contained in Regulation S promulgated under the Securities Act. The convertible loan and Underlying Securities may not be offered or sold in the absence of an effective registration statement or exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.

The foregoing summary of the Convertible Loan Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of such document, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2019.
